

Community Advocate Benefits

Community Advocates – $75 (For Individuals)

Individuals unaffiliated with an organization – at least officially – who are interested in advancing the ACS mission of developing, supporting and promoting the Howard County human services community through education and training, advocacy, and community connections.

Community Advocate Benefits

- Shape ACS programs and priorities by participating on working committees.
 - Use of conference room for up to 8 people
 - Name included in the ACS Annual Directory of Services.
 - Name included on the ACS website.
 - Receive ACS online newsletter to stay informed about human services in Howard County.
 - Member rates for training and events.
 - Network with other human service individuals and organizations at free Membership meetings and other ACS events.
 - Impact public policy discussions with the State and County elected officials
-